Crl.M.C.No.3970 of 2006

Dated this the 12th day of December 2006

O R D E R

The petitioners, who were released on bail as per order dated 11/08/2006 passed by another bench of this court subject to conditions, have now come before this court with a prayer that the conditions imposed on them may be deleted. The charge sheet has already been filed on 01/11/2006. The conditions imposed now oblige the petitioner to report before the investigating officer on the first working day of every month till the final trial and disposal. There is also a direction that the petitioner shall not leave State of Kerala till the trial and disposal of these sessions cases. The charge sheet having been filed, the condition to be complied with now is only appearing before the investigating officer on the first working day of every month. There is also an embargo against the petitioner leaving State of Kerala. I do not find any reason at this stage to delete or relax the condition. I may however hasten to observe that the direction that the petitioners shall not leave State of Kerala will not disentitle the petitioner to seek the permission of the court before which the case is pending to leave State of Kerala for any specified purpose. Orders should be passed by the said court on such application, in accordance with law.

2. This Criminal Miscellaneous Case is in these circumstances dismissed with the above observation.
